

The Redmoor

Read-More

Great books for teenage readers...

The Redmoor Read-More is a list of great fiction for teenage readers, from quick reads for those who find reading a struggle, to thrilling page-turners and well-respected classics.

This booklet is designed to help you choose books that you will love, whatever your ability or tastes. Below you will find some reading challenges.

Demonstrate your book-worming by completing some of these and win a spectacular Redmoor Read-More prize...or two.

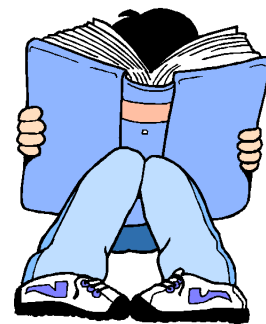

What the codes mean:

-  Quick Read: not many words on a page, often lots of pictures.
-  Teen Read: just right for 11-14 year olds who are quite confident readers.
-  Keen Read: a more demanding book for accomplished readers who like a challenge. The content, language or style may be more suited to mature teenagers.

S* This means the book is one of a series. Look out for the others by the same author!

Read-More Rewards!

- 1 Book = 10 vivos 2 Books = 20 vivos
5 books = £3 Amazon voucher
8 books = Free book of your choice from the list
10 books = One free book and an Amazon voucher
20 books = Mr Coombs' special mystery prize!

Complete a task from the following choices for each book you have read from the list to claim your Redmoor Read-More prizes...

- Book review: (collect a sheet from the library)
- Characterisation: write a monologue or diary in the style of one of characters.
- Cliff-hanger Moment: explain which part of the book had you desperate to read on and why (aim for around 300 words).
- Write an extra chapter, for example ten years later or the first chapter of a sequel.
- Write a 20 question quiz about the book.
- Imagine that tomorrow you get to meet the author or the main character. Write a set of clever interview questions to ask him or her.

Hand in your evidence to Mrs Barnes or Mrs Grocock who will award you the vivos or prize. Don't forget to put your name on it!
